PREFACE.

1325151

Snaith is a large parish situate at the western extremity of the West Riding, and included the townships of Armin, Balne, Carleton, Cowick, Goole, Gowdall, Heck, Hensall, Hooke, Pollington, and Rawcliffe.

The first volume of the Registers now printed contains the Baptisms and Marriages prior to 1656-7. It has recently been strongly rebound, and measures 13 by 7½ inches, and consists of 114 parchment leaves and one additional loose leaf upon which the late Mr. C. B. Robinson (afterwards Norcliffe), during his curacy of Snaith, completed his copy of the marriages from 1653 to 1657. From damp and decay the volume has greatly suffered, and most of the pages are defective, in many cases the writing of the two or three top lines being quite illegible. Those who are acquainted with the volume will appreciate the difficulties in the way of transcription.

The copyist of the early paper registers generally employed initials to denote the names of the township. Thus :—

S stands for Snaith.

B „ Balne (Bawn).

C „ Cowick.

G „ Gowdall.

P „ Pollington.

R „ Rawcliffe (Roccliffe).

Where two townships commence with the same initial letter, the less important ones, e.g., Carleton, Goole, and Heck and Hensall, are always given in full.

On page 69, line 16 from the top, under date 2 March, 1608-9, I have left blank the Christian name of the child baptized. It appears to read Wilscant. This is crossed out and what appears to be Saintma is written underneath. The marriage of this child is recorded on 19 Feb., 1645-6, where the name reads Sanctiman.

Amongst the marriages for 1559 is recorded that of Martin Frobisher, the famous navigator.

Opposite many entries, pointing hands have been drawn in the margin, and of those which appear to be of later insertion I have taken no notice. Many, however, were drawn contemporaneously by the Rev. Jas. Watt, opposite baptismal entries in his handwriting. Each is followed by a number ranging from 1 to 41. Seeing that no less than 14 out of the 27 male children thus distinguished were christened James, I venture to suggest that the hands were employed by Mr. Watt to indicate his god-children.

The thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. William Seed, M. A., the present Vicar of Snaith, for kind permission to copy and print these registers.

W. B.

CORRIGENDA.

Page 169, line 10 from top. For Emnet read Emmet.

* Signature at foot of this and many succeeding pages. A later hand, apparently unable to read the Latin heading to this page or Mr. Boack's handwriting, and, ignorant of the obvious fact that Mr. Boack was only the copyist of the early registers prior to about 1603, and did not die until March, 1619-20, has added 'Heugh Boucock then Minister,' and a still later hand has displayed his inability to read old handwriting by correcting Boucock to 'Bourk.' Vide Mr. Boack's note of his entry on the cure of Snaith amongst the baptisms for February, 1594-5.
